READING THE BIBLE – A DEVOTION...

Daily devotions are time spent each day dedicated to connecting with God. No matter the format, a daily devotional time, it is important. God desires relationship with us. He created us and has redeemed us for this very purpose. Jesus, prior to His crucifixion, prayed, "Father, I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world" (John 17:24). First John 4:8 tells us that God is love. The love of God is sometimes described as that of a father and child or of a married couple. These relationships are intimate. Intimacy takes time to build. We spend time – daily if possible – with those we love.

The Bible also describes God as our Lord God. We as children of God also serve God and therefore we need to spend time with Lord in order to know the heart of our Lord. When we spend daily devotional time with God, we submit our will to His. It is in that time that we surrender our lives to God. We surrender not just the overall trajectory of our lives, but each day. God is in the details of our lives (Matthew 6:25-33). He cares about the details of each day with the love of a father or spouse and also with the interest of a master. We seek to further God's kingdom. Coming to Him each day is one way to know which direction to move.

Daily devotions help us learn truth. When we spend time in God's Word, we gain wisdom and understanding. It has been said that the best way to recognise a counterfeit is to study the real thing. Satan is the "father of lies" (John 8:44). When we know the truth, we experience true freedom (John 8:32) and the Lord is our refuge (Psalm 46).

Daily spending time with God is a way to worship Him. Time is a limited resource. What we spend our time on is an indication of what we value. When we spend time with God, we demonstrate that we value Him. We claim that He is worthy of attention and of praise. Reading the Bible and spending time with the Lord is not a chore not is it to get something. It is simply a reflection of who we are!

Daily devotions is a spiritual discipline that helps us get to know God, that ensures we stay connected to Him (John 15:1-8), that teaches us truth, that provides a place for worship, and that functions as a daily shelter in the midst of the storms of life. May you know joy and peace in your devotion!

READING THE BIBLE – A FEW THOUGHTS?

Reading the Bible with intent is always connected with prayer. Expect to hear from God and actively listen for Him to speak to you through the Scripture and through the quiet prompting of His Spirit.

Meditate on the passage/ Meditation is not emptying your mind. It is deep thinking on spiritual truths. As you read, linger over verses that impact you. Allow God to apply these truths to your life. Use your journal to record insights and impressions. You can write thoughts into the spaces in this booklet. Ask the Lord questions and “listen” for His answers.

Below are some examples of questions you can use as you read the Bible:

- What does the passage say about the Lord, who He is and what He does?
- Does this passage present some truth that is moving my heart?
- Does this passage prompt you to praise God, thank God for something specific, or trust God in a situation?
- Is there something in this passage that prompts you to pray for yourself or for someone else?
- Does this passage bring to mind something you need to bring before the Lord in prayer and confession?
- Is God using this passage to move you to a particular act of obedience or to make a decision?

Respond to God’s leading/ The Word of God has the power to search our minds and penetrate our hearts. God will use it as both a balm to our souls and a scalpel to our hearts (Hebrews 4:12-13). The Lord knows exactly what we need and He knows that we desire to respond to Him. We may need to repent. We may need to step out to heal a relationship. We may need to stop, or we may need to act. We may need to change the way we think about a particular issue. Or we may need to simply sit in the comforting, healing presence of our Saviour. However God leads, let us respond.

Finally, there may be some moments when time runs short, life get hectic and perhaps the daily reading cannot take place. There are moments when life is hectic and we cannot get ahead of ‘the schedule’. The daily schedule and keeping up with the daily schedule is not what is important. What is important is to grow in your understanding of the Lord. He understands, and He loves you. So much that He came and gave His life for you.

EASTER

Isaiah 53 perfectly lays out why Jesus came and what it meant.

Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. Isaiah 53: 4-6

God, “in his great mercy ... has given us new birth into a living hope” (1 Peter 1:3). And it is our “God of hope” who enables us to “overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit” (Romans 15:13). ‘Jesus is the Lamb of God’, ‘Jesus is the Alpha and Omega’ and ‘Jesus is Eternal Life’.

Before Jesus gave his life, Jesus walks through a simple meal with His disciples. After Jesus ascended, the disciples continued to break bread and drink wine to remember and worship the One who is worthy of our honour and praise. Luke 22: 14-20 says:

And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.” And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.”

We have received grace and we remember the promises made in Isaiah 53. The Father kept these promises, “For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.” We are now victors over sin. We are victors in Christ Jesus and we respond daily by picking up the cross.

Romans 8:1-4 says:

“There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.”

ONE IN CHRIST

What Is An Identity?

Your identity comes from the things in your life that define you. It might be a title of relationship in your life or the work you do. It could also be the hobbies you enjoy or the people you're around. Your identity also comes from the values and morals that you keep. Believing in certain topics or ideas narrows your identity to certain groups and columns. Your identity is never final. It changes with every interest you have, new relationships that come, and new opinions you develop.

Christ Changes Your Identity

When a person accepts Christ as their Saviour, they are possibly changing their identity and doing a complete 180. Before Christ, it's possible that they were a part of the complete opposite of what Christ represents. When they accept Jesus, their identity becomes intertwined with His.

Jesus is the Constant, and we are the variables. We are always changing but Christ stays the same. He doesn't mould around us, we mould ourselves around Him. To find out who you are in Christ, you must first realise what He does in your life.

We no longer chase after our desires

When looking back on our own identity before Christ, it was defined as our own interests, relationships, and titles. When we become Christ-followers, it becomes completely about Him. What

I can do to bring glory to God today? How can I invite God into the challenges of my life? How can I further God's Kingdom? These questions bring ourselves and our identity into a place that becomes more about God and less about ourselves.

We stop comparing ourselves

When we realise this world has a greater purpose, our daily life and trials become minimal. Before we were trying to keep up with everyone and everything around us. In competition to have the best things. When we accept Christ in our lives, we receive the very BEST thing we could ever imagine. Suddenly the things we thought we wanted, don't seem so important anymore. When Christ enters our lives, we receive an identity that reflects His own.

We stop fearing the future

God has a plan for everyone He calls into service. When we find that out, we stop wondering what will happen to us. We realise that God's plan is all we need and we no longer are afraid of what's going to happen in the end.

The Bible about our Identity Christ?

We are Children of God/ John 1:12 says, "But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God."

We are Adopted/ Eph 1:5 says, "God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure."

We are No Longer Slaves/ Rom 6:6 says, "We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin."

We are Complete in Jesus/ Col 2:9-10 says, "For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body. So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority."

We are The Body of Christ/ 1 Cor 12:27 says, "Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it."

We are A Chosen People/ 1 Pet 2:9 says, "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light."

We are One in Christ/ Gal 3:27-28 says, "for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

We are a Temple for The Holy Spirit/ 1 Cor 6:19-20 says, "Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honour God with your bodies."

We are His Workmanship/ Eph 2:10 says, "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them."

We are a New Creation/ 2 Cor 5:17 says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come."

We are Crucified With Christ/ Gal 2:20 says, "I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me."

We are a Friend of Jesus/ John 15:15 says, "I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me."

We are Heirs With Christ/ Rom 8:17 says, "And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him."

We are Created in the Likeness of God/ Eph 4:24 says, "And to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness."

We are Citizens of Heaven/ Phi 3:20 says, "But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Saviour."

We are Ambassadors for Christ/ 2 Cor 5:20 says, "Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

CHRISTMAS & JESUS, OUR LIVING HOPE

Read Luke 2:1-20. The events leading up to the birth of Christ weren't coincidental, but were put in place by God, so that the prophecies of old would be fulfilled, in Isaiah 7: 13-14; Isaiah 9: 6-7; Micah 5: 2-5.

Jesus Christ left His throne in glory and took on human form just to bring us reconciliation to our Father God. He came into the world, miraculously conceived, and then born as all humans are. He was first a baby, then became a toddler, then grew into a child and went through adolescence before becoming an adult. He experienced humanity at all levels. He truly can identify with all people at all stages of life.

This very first Christmas, God gave the greatest gift ever. His Son! And His Son gave the gift of His life - which was why He came. Because of this, we can have relationship with God as His children. Through Jesus Christ, we are Sons and Daughters of the Most High God. Jesus is our living hope!

Romans 15:13/ I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

1 Peter 1:3-13/ In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ... Therefore, preparing your minds for action, and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 Timothy 1:1/ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope.

Galatians 5:5/ For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope.

Hebrews 6:19-20/ This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us through the curtain into God's inner sanctuary. Jesus has already gone in there for us. He has become our eternal High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

John 3:16/ For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
